Stapleton and Weaver Are Elected Editors

Dot Peacock Will Be Business Manager of 1939 Spectrum, and Kennon Associate Editor.

Mattilee Stapleton, Weston, was elected editor of the 1938-39 Spectrum at recent staff elections. Dorothy Peacock, Columbus, will serve as Business Manager. Mattilee and Dorothy have both worked with the Spectrum for several years, Mattilee serving as Assistant Business Manager.

Margaret Kennon, Columbus, and Mary Bartlett, Atlanta, will act as Associate Editors. Both of the girls have worked with the annual this year, Mary as one of the Associate Editors, and Margaret as Clubs and Organizations Editor.

Catherine Cavanaugh, Savannah, and Becky Earnest, Atlanta, have been elected Associate Business Managers.

Nellie Jo Flynt, Thomaston, will serve as Literary Editor with Marjorie Hardin, Savannah, as her assistant.

Catherine Green, Macon, will act as Feature and Photo Editor, with Callie Morris, Savannah, and Jane Melton, Griffin, acting as her assistants.

Alice Dean Carruth, Roswell, will be Clubs and Organizations Editor, while Charlotte Nolan, Senoia, will be Circulation Manager.

Typists for the ensuing year are Margaret Lowrey, Waynesboro, Frances Brittain, Columbus, and Nanine Geoghegan, Albany.

G. S. C. W. Sends Delegates To S. I. A. S. G.

Louise Moore Will Act as Corinthian Business Manager. Helen Reeve Elected Associate Editor.

Margaret Weaver, Ducktown, Tennessee, was elected editor of the Corinthian for the coming year, according to a recent announcement by Mary Kethley, retiring editor of the Corinthian.

Only three of the major staff members names are open to publication, the others lacking final approval. Louise Moore, Sidney, Ohio, was elected Business Manager of the Corinthian, while Helen Reeve, Calhoun, was elected Associate Editor of the magazine.

Margaret has worked with the Corinthian since her Freshman year, both as contributor and actual staff member. Her election is unique in that she will only be a Junior next year. Margaret is also Managing Editor of the Colonnade next year, and Exec. of the Basic Philosophy Committee of the Y.

Louise and Helen have both worked with the Corinthian this year.

G. S. C. W. Enters Debate In Tournament

The Intercollegiate Debating Society of GSCW entered two of its members in the debate tournament which was held at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina from April 7-9.

Eloise Bowlan and Callie Morris participated in the contest in which the entrants had to be prepared to debate extemporaneously the negative or the affirmative of the National Labor Relations Board question.

This is the first time the GSCW debaters have ever entered such a tournament, but the Debating Society feels sure that it will be a creditable representation.

Bennett, Volk, Blackwelder On Council

According to a change in the constitution of College Government providing for class representatives to Student Council, three girls from the various classes were selected as Council Representatives.

Mary Volk will be Representative for the Senior Class, Marion Bennett will represent the Junior class, and Madeline Blackwelder will be Freshman Representative.

The various classes held their elections the first of this week, and the officers assumed their duties at Council meeting Wednesday night.

The change in the constitution was made to secure more student opinion on Council and to have each class more ably represented.

Conover Talks To Freshmen Council

Freshman Council held an open meeting Thursday, April 7 for both faculty and students.

The Reverend C. E. Conover of Miami University, in Oxford, Ohio was the guest speaker; he is also student pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian church in Oxford. Rev. Conover gave a very interesting discussion on some of the phases of the Y. W. C. A.

A social hour followed the meeting in order that those present might meet Rev. and Mrs. Conover, who before her marriage was Miss Christine Cotner, a former student and member of the G. S. C. W. Music faculty. They were the guests of Miss Beatrice Horsbrough while in Milledgeville.

Music Festival Attracts Students All Over State

Judges of Events From Ohio, Georgia, G.S.C.W.

Approximately 1200 high school girls and boys will attend the second annual Georgia State School Music Festival to be held in Milledgeville. And forty-four town and forty schools will enter the events to be staged. The programs will be held in the Russell Auditorium, the Peabody High School Auditorium and the Methodist Church Auditorium, beginning at ten o'clock both Monday and Tuesday.

NOTICE.

Any students interested in working on the YWCA Cabinet, either in summer school this year, or during the next year, are urgently invited to consult with Marguerite Jernigan, Margaret Garbutt, or Jane Gilmer during the week of April 10-18. Appointments to Cabinet will be released early in May.

Seniors Head Winter Term Dean's List

Seniors prove themselves superior by having the greatest number of students on the Dean's List, with twenty-seven Seniors having the average. Juniors run a close second with twenty-six students on the Dean's List, while Sophomores and Freshman bring up the rear with twenty-three and eighteen listed respectively.

Seniors on the Dean's List include Jeanne Armour, Columbus, Eleanor Berry, Villa Rica, Dot Botdorf, Decatur, Cornelia Callaway, Washington, Mrs. Nan Wicker Clements, Montezuma, Mrs. Edith Crawford, Monticello, Mary Davison, Columbus, Gussie Dickson, Higdon, Mary Green, Decatur, Edith Harber, Atlanta, Lois Hatcher, Milledgeville, Josephine Jennings, Milledgeville, Ruby Jones, Baxley, Martha Koebley, Decatur, Sarah Minter, Hapeville, Mary Frances Mize, Griffin, Rebecca Mize, Griffin, Annie Moore, Milledgeville, Louisa Noyes, Atlanta, Beryl Pope, Barwick, Eva Ring, Philomath, Lavinia Scott, Milledgeville, Marjorie Scott, Milledgeville, Mary Beth Smith, Cedartown, (Continued on page four)

Annual GEA Convention In Atlanta

The seventy-third annual Georgia Education Association convention will be held in Atlanta, April 14, 15, and 16. The convention theme will be "Better Education for Georgia."

Speakers who will appear on the GEA convention program are Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rhode, first woman ever to represent the "Old South" in Congress and daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan. Her subject will be "The Cooperative Government in Scandinavia." Monsieur Pierre de Lanux, former director of the League of Nations office in Paris and at present official lecturer of the Delegation de l'Alliance through whose auspices he is brought to the United States, will speak. Dr. Laura Zirbes of the Department of Education, Ohio State University, will address the convention on "The Schools at Work on the Problem of Living." The Hon. Gov. E. D. Rivers will speak on the "State Support."

Other speakers of interest will be Mr. Walter R. Agard, Dept. of Classics, University of Wisconsin; Dr. Edwin A. Lee, Director of the National Occupational Conference, New York; Dr. R. C. Grier, president of Erskine College, S. C.; Dr. Floyd (Continued on page four)

These programs will consist of mixed choruses, girls' and boys' glee clubs; mixed small vocal groups, vocal solos by soprano, contralto, tenor, baritone, and boys' unchanged voices; piano solos; orchestras, concert bands, chamber groups of woodwind instruments and of brass instruments; miscellaneous groups of stringed instruments; solos for violin, flute, clarinet, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet-cornet; French horn; baritone - euphonium; tuba, trombone; xylophone and snare drum.

Tuesday afternoon on the GMC Parade Ground at four o'clock the marching bands will perform individually and then together will give a program of four numbers under the leadership of Arthur Williams of Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, who will be in attendance as one of the judges. The other judges will be Merrill C. McEwen, head of the department of Music Education in Bowling Green State University, Ohio; Mike McDowell, Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Georgia; Ronald J. Neil, of the Music (Continued on page four)

Snakes, Wagons Tricycles Cop Library Show

Hobbies that can't be ridden in public—or should it be undisplayable hobbies—are particularly interesting and have frustrated the efforts of the Library Staff to put them on display.

Two members of the faculty, Mr. Mossey and Mr. Knox, have gardening as their hobby, while Miss Katherine Weaver has dogs as her pet hobby.

It's possible that many people have a mental picture of Dr. Dawson touring around on a tricycle after seeing the library display, but let us make it clear that the tricycle is only a substitute for a bicycle, as bicycling is his favorite hobby.

Miss Burfitt has what she calls a "do-funny collection," and Mrs. Kiser's favorite pastime is working with girls.

Karin Pfister has a hobby that is quite foreign to southerners and ought to be unique in this hobby show—it's skiing.

Sue Lindsey collects handkerchiefs, while Bobby Dooling collects men's ties. What Bobby does with her hobby, or how she collects the ties we hesitate to think.

Frances Rowan collects compacts while Sarah Wilcox's hobby is raising cats. Third floor Emma has been puzzled about noises issuing from Margaret Fowler's room, but she must have (Continued on page four)

"Y" Plans 1938 Get Together At Blue Ridge

The Blue Ridge student conference will be held this year June 8-18, at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. The Conference will have as its theme, The Inescapable Demand of Christianity upon Us. Each morning following a conference worship period, to be led by Kirby Page, a platform address will interpret this theme as it relates to various areas of life; campus, educational system, men-women relations, industrial South, international affairs, race, agriculture. Following this platform period, the conference will be divided into discussion groups on these topics. The afternoons will be devoted to program laboratories, recreation, music interviews, drama, etc. The evenings will be devoted to a series of addresses of the conference theme, interpreting the Christian faith and its demands on those who commit themselves to that way of life.

This Conference is open to students and faculty in the Southern Region who desire to search into the (Continued on page four)

MOSELEY AND KINNEY TO STAR IN PLAY "HEARTS AND GOWNS"

Senior Musical Comedy Features Style Show

Helen Moseley and Maurice Kinney will take the leading roles in "Hearts and Gowns", Senior musical comedy production which will be staged May 13. Other leading character sars Annella Brown, Gwendolyn Jones, Sue Lindsey, and Bonnie Burge. Miss Lottie Neese will direct the play. Mary Kethley is chairman of the committee working on the play as a whole.

Other characters taking part are Elizabeth Donovan, Grace Shippey, Mary Glenn Allaben, and Sue Thomason, and Catherine Hopkins.

The play is a clever, extremely funny story of an ugly duckling who, in the final climax of the play, turns into a beauty. She is Ella Jones, and Helen Moseley will play the part. Playing opposite her in the masculine lead is Maurice Kinney, who will take the part of Don Ridge, manager of Dunn's Emporium.

Complications set in when Don finds himself in love with Delphine Dunn, daughter of the owner of Dunn's Emporium, Elijah Dunn. Sue (Continued on page four)

College Government Announcement

Council wishes to announce that the cut system generally favored by the student body—System II—will be presented to the Executive Committee for consideration Monday night.

Members of the Executive Committee are: Dr. Wells, Dr. Taylor, Dr. Scott, Mr. Thaxton, Dr. Walden, Dr. Salley, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Harper, and Dr. Lindsey.

Lindsey will take the part of Delphine, while Grace Shippey will play Elijah.

Comedy relief is provided by Bill Skeats and Jose Dugan, the errand boy and cash girl of the store. The parts are played by Annella Brown, and Gwendolyn Jones, respectively.

The high-light of the play is a style show and beauty contest. In the style show latest fashions will be modeled, and in the subsequent beauty contest a queen will be selected from entrants of each of the four classes.

Providing motif for the whole play are the extremely attractive songs and dances. Models and chorus girls have not been finally selected, but Marguerite Spears will have charge of all the choruses, while Lucy Caldwell will have charge of costumes, including the style show. Lois Hatcher will be stage manager.

The play will be in the main event of Senior Week.

American Dream Michael Foster

"American Consciousness" American Dream, he went west in the late pioneering days, and tried to do something to meliorate the harsh and perverted sense of justice of the ruffians of that country. Bucking a world which had lost sight of the Dream for which he so assiduously was searching, he defended the underdog, remained pacifist when the world had come down with the fever of war hysteria, and at last, dying heroically and quietly as he lived, knew that he had not found the dream.

Shelby Threll took the search, and, at first thought that "The American dream, whatever it had been, was lost in corruption, befouled by the hands of the grabbers," and peddled by the shouters through noisy streets and dirty marble corridors, and lost. But he thought that maybe somewhere—on the little lamplit homes along quiet streets, the homes of the people you never hear of because they are so busy keeping the world going—the dream might still be living. Only now it could no longer be called the American dream.

And Shelby saw suddenly that the dream did live, as it had lived before, for him as he sub-consciously thought of them: "unto his fathers", and "The American Dream."

Two phrases, remembered from a magazine, became alive with meaning for him as he sub-consciously thought of them: "unto his fathers", and "The American Dream."

Mexican Influence Reigns Supreme in Reeves' Outfit

Soy what you will about our campus dance, but if it weren't for Christmas Vacation, Easter, and those dances this column would long since have been a thing of past issues. The Freshman dance being no exception, this writer was certainly inspired by what she saw Saturday night.

White swiss with red dots was as dainty as Marguerite Spears herself. The dress has a full skirt, but fits closely at the waist where there are several rows of red tie-tac braids about two inches apart. The plain neck-line is trimmed in the same braid, as are the cuffs of the puffed sleeves.

The grey and flame chiffon creation that Betty Donaldson wore made you think of moonlight, champagne, and sea breezes, a la Dietrich. And I promise you that Betty had nothing to do with writing this. The skirt is full from the waist, with color shading from grey at the upper half to a pale orange to a brilliant flame at the bottom of the skirt. The waist is cut on Grecian lines with the same color shading.

Helen Reeves in her black hat and bolero dress and her black hair looks so Mexican that you fully expect her to play a guitar, order hot tam-

Let's Help Gorgia's Infant, Music, Grow

Last year in the Colonnade, on May 17, was published an editorial on the music festival that would be held in the spring of 1938, an editorial favoring the holding of the festival in Milledgeville.

Next week we see our hopes an actuality. On Monday and Tuesday the state Music Festival will be held on the campus, with 1200 students from all over the state participating. It is a step definitely worthy of notice and certainly worthy of commendation.

Music education in the state of Georgia is only in its infancy, but with progress like this being made, it's safe to predict that soon, music education will have grown to a full-sized adult.

It is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Noah, head of the Music department, that the event is to be staged in Milledgeville. It is to be hoped that the students see in the festival such possibilities that they will all cooperate in making the thing a success—which will probably result in the festival being permanently located in Milledgeville.

In addition to being a great occasion for the furtherance of music in the state, the visit of 1200 high school students will go a long way in selling the college to people who will next year or in the next few years be open to suggestions as to their college education.

The best way to do this is to follow Mr. Noah's chapel suggestion—that we make the visitors feel at home. This requires the cooperation of every student.

The Colonnade Seal of Approval

Often and often we blow up editorially about various and sundry things, but then let it be said of us also that we do give credit where credit is due, and praise where praise is due.

With the steady growth in the buildings on and off campus and with the near-completion of the Recreation Center, we would like to take this opportunity to congratulate and thank those who made the building program possible and Dr. Wells in particular.

It is mainly through the persistence and diligence of Dr. Wells that we have been able to receive appropriations for the buildings, and it is by his forethought and planning that we are now able to see in actuality the growth of GSCW.

We look on the new dormitory, the Music Building, and the Health and Physical Education Building as ultra desirable and very necessary additions to the buildings on our campus. For through the physical growth of the college can be adequately measured the intangible growth.

But somehow that Recreation Center is especially dear to our hearts. In addition to its being the grandest play and relaxation spot we've yet seen, it means more than that—it means we have a president who is interested, not only in our intellectual development, but in our physical and personal development. It means we have a president who wants to make of us well-rounded individuals—people who know how to work, yes; but also people who know how to play. Perhaps that's why we're so partial to the Recreation Center.

So—let us take this occasion to say that we recognize the progress that is being made, and that we are heartily in favor of it.

It Wasn't Told Us—We Only Heard

—Recently we have heard mutterings but and around that editorials printed in the Colonnade were uncalled for. We refer in particular to the editorial printed in issue 19 concerning the outcome of the cut system. It has come to our ears that students themselves have gone to faculty members and higher-ups and complained that the editorial was one that questioned authority.

What irks us is that whoever is doing the so-called muttering doesn't mutter to us directly. The way to improve a paper is to criticize it openly and to the staff—not to criticize it to people who have abstractly, nothing to do with what goes on in the paper.

If you think we questioned authority when we shouldn't have, tell US so and let us make what explanation we can. We not only want—we solicit—criticism. And yet some people expect us to do the equivalent of reading their minds, catch the under-currents of criticism that go on among the students, and act in accordance.

Anyway, we'd like to know what authority they mean. It seems to us that in a College Government Association, the students have authority as does the faculty.

We want it made clear that we want to know what you think of the paper, whether the opinion be good or bad. And in the future, we would appreciate it if students would bring their complaints to the source of the irritation.

In Favor of An Elastic News Paper

Often there is a question in the mind of the reader when he reads the Colonnade and fails to find there an article that he had expected to find. We want to explain that this is not due to oversight on the part of the Colonnade, or deliberate omission. The explanation is that more often than not, there is more news than there is space to print it, and naturally spot news and that of wider reading interest must be given first consideration.

Every week news is turned into the Colonnade desk that never reaches the paper and we feel the contributors are due this explanation. We ask that you not stop contributing articles and items because once or twice other articles take precedence over your own.

It is the effort of the paper to cover the campus as well as possible. If you think we are not doing it as well as we should, we would deeply appreciate your criticism. The editorial page is always open to free student expression.

self! It is an evening dress cut on princess lines, with a little pointed ruffle around the top of the bodice. The shoulder straps are made of small red, green, and tan strips to match the color of the pattern in the dress material.

Stories By Scandal-light

It is hoped that through the courtesy of this column Dr. Lindley will be enabled to continue his now static experiment. Since his supply of rats, which are of necessity involved, is exhausted, further action has been completely held up and he is out of rats. The common run of rodents are not to be desired; it's wharf rats that are so badly needed. Dr. Lindley will greatly appreciate any response to this urgent plea. Any rat hater minus the rat will be gratefully accepted also.

The Sunday morning before spring holidays, a little negro boy was on the third floor of Bell going from door to door selling newspapers. The girl decided not to shadow the little fellow's most erroneous illusion, but to see how far down the hall he would get. He received gracious welcomes as far as Marion Arthur's room. Marion was coolly polite and sent him to get permission before he continued his unlawful trespassing. He didn't get back.

Peggy Booth went a little farther with her April Fool prank Monday than she had intended to. She took the top off the tire of a car in front of Bell to let just a LITTLE air escape, but to her distress she was unable to put the cap back on. It was only a matter of a very short time before the rim was completely on the ground, and Peggy was staying shy of the front of Bell.

Mary Humphries was one of the girls to give a report in her health class on diseases. She was to be responsible for a discussion on several diseases, but when she began her talk with "I have the following diseases: pneumonia, bronchitis, malaria, and tuberculosis," the class was nearly permanently disrupted.

I haven't found out who it is, but Ralph Smith in his column in the Constitution mentioned a GSCW girl and her escape in the Atlanta Bus Station. She, Madame X, seeing a boy with a uniform and cap on, tapped him on the shoulder and said "I would like a taxi, please"—she Word has been going around of course that Bonnie Burge has been leaving about a certain party. She won't tell anything about them, it seems they are too ridiculous—or something. Cutler Kidd is the goat of the episodes, but that's all anybody can extract from her. C. K. is very concerned, and why shouldn't he be?

Katherine Combs had extensive trouble with her corsage the night of the dance. She had expressed view. (Continued on page three)

Recreation Association Activities

Schedule of Events
Softball—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday—5:00-6:00.
Folk Dancing—Monday—5:00-6:00.
Archery—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday—5:00-6:00.
Beginners golf—Tuesday, Friday—5:00-6:00.
Fencing—Tuesday, Friday—5:00-6:00.
Social Dancing—Thursday—5:00-6:00.
Golf Club—Wednesday—5:00-6:00.
Cottillion Club—Friday—5:00-6:00.
Hiking—Wednesday, Friday.
Tennis Club—Thursday—4:00-5:00.

Softball
Organization day Tuesday brought out many enthusiastic softball players. The group, which meets on the back Campus four days a week, has been divided so that Freshmen teams play—Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Sophomores—Wednesday, Thursday—5:00-6:00.

Seniors—Wednesday, Friday.

Captains of the teams are: (Freshmen) Wilkie and Edwards, (Sophomores) Sigman, (Juniors) Cheeves, (Seniors) C. Penland.

If it's fun you are looking for plus a nice sun-bath, softball on the back campus is the place to get it!

Folk Dancing
The folk dancers are keeping right up to par with their "Polkas," "Morzarks," etc.; and it is very interesting to note the variety of dances that this group learns at each meeting.

Mexico, Sweden, Switzerland, and others are included and it is miraculous how these members are able to vary their costumes from one nationality to another by a simple change of a feather or head-dress.

Archery
The group attracted to archery is good, but it could be much better. Join the archers on the east side of Bell Hall for some real sport. It's easy to learn and a tournament will begin as soon as you have some practice in hitting those Bull's eyes. Bring your friends and compete with them.

Cottillion Club
About fifty dancers were present to try out for the Cottillion Club last Friday. Out of those fifty, thirty were selected as members. This group will meet twice monthly having a President and Secretary and Treasurer to take charge of the purposes and objects of the club.

This club is unique and is one which has aroused a great deal of interest on the campus. Let's watch these dancers go places!

Social Dancing
It's a shame that the Cottillion Club must limit its membership to thirty, but don't be dismayed! Remember to join the social dancing group in Terrell Rec. Hall at 8:00 on Thursdays. They learn new steps at each meeting and "SMOOTH" dancing is the watchword, so you find a partner and use it there.

Fencing
The fencing tournament has been progressing and with it, several highlights. Probably the best of all was the startling "touch" that Mary Cole made on Miss Andrews on Tuesday afternoon. As calm as any professional, Mary sliced a button off Miss Andrews' dress. That's fencing!

Tennis Club
The Tennis Club, composed of fourteen expert players, now has its organization completed and has its first meeting scheduled at 4:00 on Thursdays. We congratulate this group and know that they have exciting plans in store for them.

Beginner's Golf
A popular sort of golf should make every would-be-golfer rush to the front campus on Tuesday and Fridays. Let's see you out swinging those clubs. Pretty soon you'll be

Individual Sports
How many of you have tried Paddle Tennis or Badminton? Facilities for both games are always available on the front campus, and the fun you get out of it is too much to be expressed in type! If it's Badminton you favor, grab a Racket and make a few "aces," or if Paddle Tennis interests you, come out and play singles or doubles. These individual sports are truly great fun.

Radio Program Sponsored By Cobb County

The Cobb County GSCW Club will sponsor the monthly GSCW radio broadcast over WSB, Saturday, April 9, at 11 o'clock, EST. Miss Edith Manning is President of the club.

The program will take the form of the April meeting of the club and the procedure of the meeting will go out on the air. They have invited members of the Atlanta GSCW Club to meet with them.

The program is as follows: Talk by Miss Marie Chastain, Home Demonstration Agent for Cobb County, on "First Year's Activities of the Cobb County GSCW Club." According to solo "The Blue Danube" by Mrs. George Daniell with Miss Grace Broodrick at the piano. Miss Broodrick will also play "Ave Maria," by Gounod.

Violin Solo by Miss Frances Linder with Miss Daniell at the piano. Musical Rendition "The House by the Side of the Road," with Mrs. Daniell at the piano.

Duplicators Are Necessary Says Newkerch

"All radio programs, including our favorite swing tunes, are absolutely dependent on duplicating machines for their success," said W. F. Newkerch, field representative in the dealer division of Dittion, Inc., of Chicago, Illinois, as he demonstrated several duplicating machines to the classes in office practice Wednesday.

After giving the students a brief historical background of these machines, he showed them how to successfully operate and care for the gelatin and direct duplicating machines which his company sells. He related experiences to illustrate how indispensable this type of equipment is to modern business offices in making a number of copies of orders, statements, advertising materials, etc.

He also gave the students valuable information concerning what is expected of secretaries. He particularly stressed the importance of immediately and correctly carrying out instructions without asking for directions a second time.

Mr. Newkerch was formerly office manager for a large investment company and has been with Dittion, Inc. since 1928, during which time he has been selling, demonstrating, and training salesmen. Accompanying him was Mr. W. R. Fullerton, of the Atlanta office of the American Seating Company, which also sells Dittion equipment.

History Club To Be Headed By Tarpley
The History Club elected officers for the coming year at their last meeting. The new officers are: President, Edna Tarpley; Vice-President, Sarah Morgan; Secretary, Roxanna Austin; Treasurer, Dorothy Aultman; and Chairman of the Program Committee, Nell Smith.

The retiring officers are Margie Edwards, President; Lois Hatcher, Vice-President; Florence McCommon, Treasurer; Roxanna Austin was re-elected secretary.

Several new members joined the club at the last meeting. These members are Martha Ballie, Janet Jenkins, Frances Joiner, Louise Cox, and Bert Harper.

G. S. C. W. Debates University of Cincinnati

Arday Berless and Milton Margolis of the University of Cincinnati debated Marguerite Chester and Winifred Noble on the question Resolved: That the National Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes, Tuesday evening in the Biology Lecture Room. The men's team upheld the affirmative and the GSCW team defended the negative.

A woman's team composed of Virginia Horton and Lauriel Eubank also from the University of Cincinnati met Arva Tolbert and Olive Kippard of GSCW at the same time as the other debate. The subject of this debate was Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of unionism solo "The Blue Danube" by Mrs. George Daniell with Miss Grace Broodrick at the piano. Miss Broodrick will also play "Ave Maria," by Gounod.

The University of Cincinnati debaters are on a tour of debates with several southern colleges. On Wednesday they left for Atlanta where they had a radio debate with Emory. They left Atlanta Thursday for Rock Hill, S. C., where a tournament is being held. These debaters were accompanied by Miss Kathleen Ressler, a speech teacher and Personnel officer in the University of Cincinnati.

Joint Retreat Of Macon Y and GSC Held Thursday
On Thursday night of this week at 7:00 P. M. in the YWCA Office Dr. Euri Belle Bolton, of the Psychology Department, will talk to the Industrial Relations Group of the YWCA on the subject, The Psychology of Power. The theme of the group to the Spring Quarter was sounded last Thursday when Rev. R. W. Oakley introduced the total work of the YWCA for the last quarter in a talk on Religion in the Twentieth Century. The love of people for power seems to be one large stumbling block to the betterment of conditions in industry. The Industrial Group invites the interested public to be present to hear Dr. Bolton's interpretation of this subject.

During the week-end of May 28 and 29, the Industrial Relations Group headed by Evelyn Gilroy, is sponsoring a joint retreat with the Macon YWCA Club and the Wesleyan College YWCA Club. GSCW and Macon have enjoyed two joint meetings this year, and this week-end will provide a time for discussion of a topic of common interest to both students and working girls.

The retreat will be held at Camp Joyell. The GSCW group of campers has been placed at 20. Any girls especially interested are cordially invited to consult Evelyn Gilroy or Marguerite Jernigan concerning the possibilities of being a member of the GSCW contingent.

ferent desires that her date would remember her on this certain score so her roommates fixed her up. They arranged the clover, tied it with a ribbon, put it in a box, and hid it sent to her. Now, that would have been enough, but that's not what they had done, and asked him to take up where they had left off. When Katherine saw him just before the dance, he asked her (as if he would have) if she got the flowers. Being approximately sure of the hoax, but not sure enough to be absolutely sure, she went back to get the corsage and would have worn it if the practical joker hadn't gone soft.

G. S. C. W. Sends Delegates

April 14-16.
The purpose of the S. I. A. S. G. for this year is to consider student government as a preface to society. Interesting discussion groups along this line and other lines pertaining to student government in its broader sense have been planned. One of the high-lights of the convention will be the Open Forum where all questions not brought up in the preceding discussions and of interest to the delegates will be considered.

Each member college may have two representatives with the privilege to vote and as many others as the college can send without the privilege to vote.

The delegates will be accompanied by Miss Virginia Satterfield, Librarian.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Department of Statesboro, and Frank A'Andrea of G. S. C. W.

The towns to be represented at this festival are Toccoa, Tifton, Forsyth, Macon, Wrightsville, Griffin, Crawfordville, Cumming, Thomson, Villa Rica, Washington, Toccoa Falls, Sylva, Moultrie, Ashburn, Royston, Abbeville, Fairburn, Blue Ridge, Bainbridge, Thomasville, Americus, Albany, Cedartown, Cartersville, East Point, Conyers, Atlanta, from which thirteen schools will be represented, Hazlehurst, Collegeboro, Halura, Homerville, Winder, Macon, Milledgeville, Cuthbert, Gainesville, Eastman, Emory University (Druid Hills), Savannah, Millen, Adel, Marietta, and Jonesboro.

The group rating plan has been adopted for this Festival and the performance of each contestant is evaluated by each of the three judges acting independently. The combination of ratings thus given will determine the final rating of each contestant—thus eliminating the usual 1-2-3 plan which ranks but does not rate. Every contestant thus has a chance to be number one—if he or she is good enough. The ratings will run: superior, excellent, good, average, or fair.

Lodging for these boys and girls is being provided for in the homes of Milledgeville and at GSCW. They will take their meals wherever they wish and at any hour they can be free from the festival engagements since the programs run from ten straight through until five.

HOBBY SHOW

been only practicing her hobby—singing.

Red wagons are Marguerite Spears' hobby. We do not know whether they are big wagons or little wagons, or whether she just likes to ride in red wagons, but suffice to say that her hobby is red wagons. Ferrell Cokes collects arrowheads, reverting to primitive type; Gladys Johnson goes in for antiques, while Sara Henderson amasses soap samples.

There is no excuse for Helen Reeve's hobby which is snakes. Unpleasant, we'd call it, and quite opposite from Dora Turner's hobby which is collecting recipes from chocolate cake.

Duke University

SCHOOL OF NURSING
DURHAM, N. C.

The Diploma of Graduate Nurse is awarded after three years and the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing for two additional years of approved college work before or after this nursing course. The entrance requirements are intelligence, character and graduation from an acceptable high school; preference is given for one or more years of successful college work. The tuition is $100 per year which includes all cost of maintenance, uniforms, etc. Catalogues and application forms, which must be filed before August first for admission September thirtieth, may be obtained from the Dean.

Peabody High School Features Hobby Show

Everything from dolls to chocolate cake is on display at the Peabody High School Hobby Show at the Little Library this week under the direction of Miss Austelle Adams, Librarian.

Miss Adams herself keeps a birthday book for her hobby and likes to remember people's birthdays. The grade students, from the kindergarten through the graduating class, have their various hobbies on display.

Miss Nelle Day, of the Peabody faculty, collects costume bracelets, and Miss Lila Blitch collects costume pins. Betty Biggs, of the 10th grade, writes to correspondents abroad. Jane Tennille collects postcards from foreign lands. Frances Hooten likes to collect old glass bottles. Vera Scott Arnold has a delicious looking chocolate cake on exhibit to show that her hobby is cooking.

Betty Rhodes has saved every picture she has ever found of the Dionne Quins, and has on display two full books. Ruth Harrington saves the paper napkins from parties. Billy Walden, whose dad teaches math at GSCW, collects stamps. Martha Zachry collects odd vases. Mrs. C. B. McCullar collects handkerchiefs. Carolyn Smith has a collection of odd pine cones.

Margaret Keel collects pictures of Charlie McCarthy.

BLUERIDGE CONFERENCE

meaning and implications of the truths of the Christian faith for their own lives and who seek fellowship with one another to realize these truths on the campus and in the world. On Saturday, April 16, at 3:15 in the YWCA Office there will be a meeting open to all students and faculty interested in going to the Blue Ridge Conference this year. If you are interested at all, be sure to be present at this meeting, as more details about the program, and financial ways and means will be discussed.
